FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: November 3, 2021

Carolina Academic Press will publish Katie Rose Guest Pryal and Louis Di Leo's The Complete Pre-Law Writer in the spring of 2022. The Complete Pre-Law Writer teaches pre-law students, paralegals, and students preparing to attend law school the skills necessary to succeed in law school or in support positions in law firms. Covering the foundations of the U.S. legal system, how to read judicial opinions, how to write case briefs, office memos, law firm blog posts, and more, the book serves as both a textbook and a reference for those stepping into the legal profession.

The Complete Pre-Law Writer is the third book in The Complete Series for Legal Writers, edited by Pryal and Professor Alexa Z. Chew of the University of North Carolina School of Law. The first two titles are The Complete Legal Writer (2016) released in its second edition in 2020, and The Complete Bar Writer (2020). Both are authored by Chew and Pryal. More titles in the series are forthcoming.

Katie Rose Guest Pryal, J.D., Ph.D., is an expert in legal writing and mental health. In addition to the three titles in The Complete Series for Legal Writers, she is the author of the bestselling Life of the Mind Interrupted: Essays on Mental Health and Disability in Higher Education, the IPPY Gold award-winner Even If You're Broken: Essays on Sexual Assault and MeToo, and many other books. She is an Adjunct Professor of Law at the University of North Carolina School of Law and Of Counsel at Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP.

Louis Di Leo, J.D., Ph.D., is a professor, writer, and attorney (licensed in New Jersey). While a law student, he traveled to Grand Cayman to study international and Caribbean law under the Hon. Patrick Robinson of the World Court. In addition to fiction and nonfiction writing, his teaching and research interests include legal discourse, Caribbean literature, environmental advocacy, and English composition. He is an Assistant Professor of English at Florida Southern College.
